UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Professor Hartgen Named John Huddilston Professor of Art

Professor Vincent A. Hartgen, a faculty member at the University for the past 16 years, has been named the John Homer Huddilston Professor of Art at the University.

An anonymous gift of $30,000 has been accepted by the Board of Trustees to establish the Chair. It was the third special professorship to be created at the University.

Named for Dr. John H. Huddilston, a member of the University faculty from 1899 to 1942, the new chair is the first to be established in the College of Arts and Sciences.

During his 43 years of service to the University, Dr. Huddilston became one of the most popular and best-loved faculty members. Known widely among students, faculty and alumni as "Paddy," he was the author of a number of books, a member of the State of Maine Art Commission, and the one who laid the foundations for the University's large collection of reproductions and slides of famous art works. He died in 1956.

Professor Hartgen who succeeded Dr. Huddilston, is a native of Reading, Pa., and did his undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania.

University President Lloyd H. Elliott said it is "most fitting" that Professor Hartgen should be the first to hold this named professorship since "his contribution to educational life at the University has been so outstanding.

"Furthermore, the establishment of the John Homer Huddilston Professorship of Art points unmistakably to the increasing importance of the creative arts in the curriculum of the State University."

IF SCIENCE rides to the sky and beyond this day, shall art remain at ground zero?

The culture and discipline that are science, we recognize as being important to youth, and therefore, to education. Art is a companion, a culture and discipline equally important to youth's education. If this were not so, could we claim much difference between our own society and that of the U.S.S.R.?

Theirs is a materialistic existence, and so is ours—except for something we add which is non-scientific: our deep regard for the individual freedom of a human spirit.

Fortunately, at Maine we teach to the ends of knowledge in both art and science, and we encourage creativity in both kinds of culture, beyond recorded wisdom. A socio-religious difference and a research spirit, about all truths of life, promise us competitive success for humankind in the United States.

A Summer Arts Festival at the University was proposed two years ago. A third summer is now with us, containing a few excellent programs of music, arts and speech. Alongside science fairs and a technology display there was also a March Festival of Arts this year. These matters belong to the University, not as its sole right, but because there is here a community of scholars and of youthful people, desiring to learn, to understand, to expand their cultural experiences. Talents from Maine and from outside the state follow one another in the schedule of artistic offerings for Maine audiences and other visitors.

The science lab and the theatre auditorium are companion necessities on a university campus. Neither one is easily provided, even in a tax assisted institution. Yet, private philanthropy has had to be the more responsible to guarantee progress in art.

Now that ground is being broken to build the Hauck Auditorium, a theatre-auditorium for cultural activities is thus provided.

We realize that many folks have given us the shell of our building. Some more generosity in the spirit of cultural education will be needed.

CAMPUS IN SUMMER

ONE THING OR ANOTHER

The campus never seemed busier with a multitude of varied activities, academic and otherwise

ONE OF THE most striking features about Maine's campus in summer is the variety of activities it embraces.

If it wasn't Boys State it was the Future Farmers of America. If it wasn't a group of high school teachers surveying the use of newspapers in the classroom, it was a group of paper makers, attending the third annual Pulp and Paper Summer Institute.

If it wasn't "A Night with Basil Rathbone," it was a recital by Mme. Freda Gray-Masse '50.

If it wasn't a multilingual conversation at Language House (Estabrooke Hall), it was a Peace Corps discussion of Sierra Leone.

One Thing or Another

In short, if it wasn't one thing it was another. The campus, it seemed, had never been busier.

These peripheral activities revolved around the central theme: Summer Session. From all indications—and from the enthusiasm of its directors—this year's Summer Session was the most successful to date. A record number of students, nearly 3,000, enrolled in a staggering variety of courses that brought visiting instructors from far and wide in the nine-week session.

Among the guest faculty members was Dr. Doris Twitchell Allen, who received her bachelor's degree at Maine in 1923, her master's degree in 1926 and later went on to receive a doctorate at the University of Michigan.

Topic of her courses were "Individual Behavior in Group Situations," and "Personality Theory." She is associate professor of clinical psychology in the graduate school of the University of Cincinnati.

The last words of Spring commencement had hardly echoed across campus when the summer's activities began. Boys State got things rolling when it convened for its 15th year. One of the highlights, as usual, was the appearance of Maine's chief executive. Gov. John H. Reed '42 addressed the high school legislators. Dr. Eugene A. Mawhinney '47, of the history and government department, served as director. The week-long session was sponsored by the Maine Department, American Legion, James L. Boyle '12, adjutant.

This group of young men had barely left campus when some 200 more descended upon it. This time it was the Future Farmers of America, who gathered for their two-day state convention.

Seminars and Workshops

Meanwhile, a group of high school civics and current affairs teachers gathered for a two-week-long seminar on the use of newspapers in the classroom. Not surprisingly, many were attending the seminar under the sponsorship of their hometown daily newspapers, which, in fact, had made the program possible.

There were other workshops for teachers and educational administrators. A special four-week workshop was held for teachers and administrators of schools participating in the University's Team Teaching Project. The workshop was part of a five-year program at the College of Education being supported by a $500,000 Ford Foundation grant. It gave the invited school personnel an opportunity to study the purposes and potentials of team teaching as well as to set up curriculum and pupil-grouping plans for the coming school year.

In mid-July the Pulp and Paper Summer Institute convened for a three-week series of studies related to the paper industry. The 23 who attended came from eight states, and from Canada, Brazil and Argentina. They were sent by their employers for training in pulp technology or for refresher work in this subject. The instructional staff included eight professors from three colleges and 11 lecturers from industry—all specialists in their fields. Prof. Lyle C. Jenness, head of the chemical engineering department, served as director of the institute.

A Weekly "Newspaper"

For anything as complex as the University's summertime operation, there is a distinct need for a medium of communication. During the regular academic year, this function is performed by the Maine Campus, the student newspaper. During the summer, when the Campus is on vacation, this need is filled by Maine Notes, a weekly, mimeographed compendium of activities, notices and announcements of general interest, published each Monday by the director of the Summer Session.

A glance through Maine Notes, like a glance through any community's newspaper, gives one a fairly good idea of what one can expect to find in that community. Under such headings as Lectures, Drama, Concerts, Social Events, the wide variety of extracurricular activities available to Summer Session students was presented.

One of the notices in Maine Notes sought from Summer Session students a cast for a community theater dramatic presentation. Tryouts were held in late June for the August production of Epitaph for George Dillon. Written primarily as a character study, it is a modern British play by John Osborne and Anthony Creighton, two of Britain's Angry Young Men.

And so it went. Far from being a quiet retreat from the hustle and bustle of the outside world, the University's campus in summer maintained a high level of academic hustle and bustle all its own.

FOR THE AUDITORIUM: A GIANT STEP

A GIANT STEP toward creation of the long-awaited Arthur A. Hauck Auditorium was taken on July 18 when bids for construction were opened by the maintenance and control committee of the Board of Trustees.

The committee at the same time opened bids for a new men's dormitory.

Apparent low bidder for the auditorium project was Franchi Construction Company of Newton, Massachusetts, with a bid of $834,111. The Jefferson Construction Company of Cambridge, Massachusetts, was apparent low bidder for the dormitory construction with a bid of $913,198.

Construction of the auditorium is expected to start shortly with September 1, 1963 set as a completion date.

Funds for the project were raised during a campaign started by University alumni in 1959. A second gift campaign is presently in progress.

The men's dormitory, the third in a series, is being erected in the northeast section of the campus. Gannett and Cumberland Halls have already been built. Eventually, six men's dormitories are planned for this area.

Pulp and Paper officers

J. Larcom Ober '13, of Beverly, Mass., has been elected chairman of the board of directors of the University of Maine Pulp and Paper Foundation.

Frederic A. Soderberg '25, of Rensselaer, N. Y., has been elected president.

Ralph H. Cutting, of Waterville, president of Keyes Fibre Co., and a member of the University's Board of Directors, was elected a vice president.

Henry W. Fales '35, of Woodland, was named secretary, and Ralph A. Wilkins '19, of East Walpole, Mass., was named treasurer.

Faculty names in the news

Professors Herbert J. Edwards and John E. Hankins, both of the English department, are authors of a 120-page publication entitled, Lincoln the Writer—The Development of His Literary Style, as part of the University of Maine Series published by the University of Maine Press.

Dr. W. Stanley Devino, assistant professor of business and economics, and Dr. Arnold

H. Raphaelson, associate professor of business and economics, have been awarded fellowships for the Ford Foundation Workshop on Unemployment Problems and Policy in a national competition for 20 openings.

Chester Banasiak, assistant professor in game management in the School of Forestry, has become the first University of Maine man to receive the John Pearce Award from the New England Wildlife Society. The award was made in recognition of his outstanding contributions in deer research and management.

Waldo M. Libbey '44 and Alban A. P. de Souza, both of the electrical engineering department, attended a summer institute for graduate study at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. Geddes W. Simpson, head of the entomology department, has been invited to speak at the next International Congress of Entomology to be held in England in 1964.

In several respects, this issue of The Alumnus represents a "new look" for the alumni publication. Besides a newly designed cover and a new approach to presentation, it inaugurates a new mailing system.

For the past several weeks, members of the Alumni Office staff have been transferring all alumni names to punched computer cards, which will be used in an electronic addressing machine.

The new system will represent substantial savings both in terms of time and money.

Because of the newness of the system, there is a chance your name and address did not appear properly on the address plate. If an error appears in this name plate, please notify the Alumni Office, 44 Library, University of Maine, Orono.

Your comments on the magazine's "new look" also are invited.

Chandeliers: A gift

A gift of three chandeliers for the new Arthur A. Hauck Auditorium has been made by Alonzo J. Harriman Associates, Inc., architects for the building.

Besides Mr. Harriman, a member of the Class of 1920, others in the firm who are Maine alumni or parents of alumni are:

Kenneth Barnard '54; Richard Bastow '57; Orman B. Doore '44; Frederick S. Drott '58; Stephen H. Drott '30; Philip Gatz, parent; Thomas S. Murch '36; Adria Smith, parent; and Robert Thorpe '50.

THE ARTS

GRAPHIC BY ETIENNE RET

THE ARTS are on parade at Maine—and the response is nothing less than terrific.

If this sounds exclamatory, it is because it reflects the enthusiasm shared by all concerned with the cultural explosion on the University campus: The planners, the arrangers, the behind-the-scenes workers, the performers—and the audiences.

As the nearest point in illustration, take the third annual Summer Arts Festival, which was run in conjunction with this year's Summer Session.

The festival brought to Maine's campus a wide array of nationally and internationally known performers and lecturers, as well as exhibitions of many widely known artists.

The arts festival idea at Maine was born in 1960 when it became increasingly evident that the University ought to offer more in the way of cultural events. The idea met with almost immediate enthusiasm, as witnessed by the number who attended the various events.

From the beginning, it was felt that the events should be made available to a wider audience than the campus community. As a result, the arts festivals have become one of the cultural highlights of northeastern Maine. An added attraction is the fact that all events are free of admission.

Appreciation of the general public for the idea is reflected in a recent editorial in the Bangor Daily News. The News commented that, "one of the splendid things about the University of Maine's summer program is its annual Summer Arts Festival... Toss in the beautiful University of Maine campus and you have a summer program well worth the effort."

As a matter of fact, the committee in charge of the festival is making a distinct effort to attract the attention not only of northeastern Maine residents, but of Maine's summer visitors, as well.

Professor Frank W. Myers, chairman of the nine-member planning group for the summer festival, says it is felt that the event is making a definite contribution to the vacation attractions of Maine.

In 1961, and again this year, the program was extended to include a Spring Arts Festival. Highlights of this year's spring festival were appearances by Cornelia Otis Skinner, playwright Marc Connelly and author and poet Louis Untermeyer.

Typical of the enthusiasm is that expressed by Vincent A. Hartgen, University's John H. Huddilston professor of art and head of the art department, a member of the festival planning committee. Says Mr. Hartgen: "Our committee is very proud of this summer's offerings, for it is one of the most concentrated array of fine arts events ever brought to Orono.

"It's a pleasure and joy to watch the enthusiastic responses we are getting from our University students and residents in nearby communities," he continues. "I can envision a day when Orono will be of major importance as an arts center during the summer months... and what better location in the country can you find?"

The festival is beginning to be recognized by the cultural world, too. Several years ago, when it was a new idea, the committee went looking for arts events. Now, committee members report they are swamped with requests from which they have to choose.

An educator started this year's program with a morning lecture in the Memorial Gymnasium. Dr. Henry Tichnor Hillson, principal of George Washington High School in New York, described the "Higher Horizons Program" in some New York City schools which was designed to reach underprivileged children with hidden potential.

Adm. Samuel Eliot Morison, a Northeast Harbor summer resident and one of the nation's great historians, delivered the second lecture. Mr. Morison has completed 15 volumes of his monumental history of U. S. Naval Operations in World War II and is a Pulitzer Prize winner for his biography of Christopher Columbus, Admiral of the Ocean Seas. He is Jonathan Trumbull Professor of American History, Emeritus, of Harvard University.

The third lecture in the series was delivered by Dr. George E. Davis, head of the adult education division of Purdue University. He delighted his audience with a presentation of the life and poems of James Whitcomb Riley. A special study of the Hoosier poet has made Dr. Davis one of the best known interpreters of Riley.

Of special interest to the University community was the per-

Mme. Freda Gray-Masse

Basil Rathbone

A "cultural explosion" has hit the campus and the entire state is the richer for it formance of Mme. Freda Gray-Masse, a member of the Class of 1950. Mme. Gray-Masse, a mezzo-contralto with a voice of distinctive warmth and texture, presented a recital as part of the festival program. She has had intensive vocal study with Mme. Pierre Monteux, and has sung with the Boston Symphony, the National Symphony in Washington, D. C., the London Symphony, and in concert festivals at Tanglewood and Vienna. A former music supervisor in the Winslow schools, she teaches voice at Colby College and at Oak Grove School for Girls.

Other concerts included performances by the Beaux Arts String Quartet and by the Dorian Quintet.

The Beaux Arts String Quartet is rapidly securing an enviable reputation as one of the country's most outstanding chamber groups. Their artistry has been demonstrated both in their grasp of the classic repertoire and in their vital interpretation of works by contemporary composers.

The Dorian Quintet is an outstanding ensemble of gifted instrumentalists. They made their debut in 1961 at Tanglewood as the woodwind contingent of the Fromm Players. The five young American musicians have all made successful appearances as soloists, and the Quintet has received great critical acclaim for its New York performances, at Tanglewood and on tour.

Undoubtedly the highlight of the summer festival was "An Evening with Basil Rathbone." Numbered among the all-time acting "greats," Mr. Rathbone is one of the most versatile performers of Broadway and Hollywood. What he brings to concert audiences is, in brief, a dramatic presentation of the works of the English-speaking world's great poets, novelists and playwrights.

Special art exhibits featured as part of the festival were the Freddy and Regina T. Homburger collection, as well as a series of watercolors done by Dr. Homburger himself; a display of contemporary graphic artists; the graphic arts of Etienne Ret; and an exhibition of the art of advertising.

The Homburger collection is a rare array of works by such

Dorian Quintet

UTRILLO'S "RUE D'ORSEL" FROM THE HOMBURGER COLLECTION

world famous artists as Renoir, Corot, Pissarro, Maurice Utrillo, Raoul Dufy and Jacques Lipchitz.

A pamphlet describing the Homburger collection for Summer Arts Festival visitors contains an introduction written especially for the University of Maine showing by the noted New York Times art critic, Brian O'Doherty. Mr. O'Doherty writes as a personal friend of the Homburgers, and of their acquaintance with one of the artists represented in their collection, Raoul Dufy. "Indeed," he says, "writing this note to the Homburgers' collection is an act of friendship from which I get much pleasure. I wish that people who will study and enjoy this collection could also meet Freddy and Gin."

Many of Dr. Homburger's scenes displayed on campus are of Maine coastscapes. Dr. Homburger, former director of the Cancer Research unit at Tufts Medical School, and now director of his own institute in Cambridge, Mass., is a recognized research doctor as well as a successful professional artist.

In the graphic arts showings, twenty outstanding examples of modern works from Europe and the United States appeared through the courtesy of Ferdinand Roten, of Baltimore, Md. Thirty more, all the work of the French artist, Etienne Ret, appeared through an arrangement by the Associated American Artists.

The Art of Advertising exhibition of twenty colorful panels depicting twenty major areas of modern advertising was arranged by the National Society of Art Directors. The University was singled out as one of the few institutions to have the privilege of showing it.

With such an array of cultural events, it is easy to see why the enthusiasm for the arts festival idea has caused a "cultural explosion" on campus. Committee members are even in hopes of expanding the program in future years to include dramatic presentations, as well as the music, art and lecture features that have made past festivals such a success.

Sam Sezak '31 and Peace Corpsmen: Daily Dozen

The University provides a link with a new African nation as

THE PEACE CORPS

sends a delegation for a two-month
training stint

UNTIL RECENTLY, few at the University had heard very much about Sierra Leone. Fewer still had ever given the tiny west African nation much serious thought.

Then, in late spring, whisperings began to be heard that a Peace Corps delegation would be using the University as a training site before embarking for projects in one of the world's newest nations.

Whisperings became louder . . .

The whisperings became louder, and soon word was official—the Peace Corps indeed was coming to Maine. About thirty Peace Corpsmen arrived on campus in mid-July to begin studies pertaining to their mission in the former British crown colony.

At the University they are receiving 514 hours of training in technical studies, area studies, language, American studies and world affairs, health and medical training, physical and recreational training and background information on communism.

When their stint at Maine ends on September 16, those who still qualify will continue their training at the Peace Corps Training Center in Arecibo, Puerto Rico. Later, they will receive in-country training in Freetown, Sierra Leone.

Their mission: Development

They will then be assigned as the first rural community development group on the African continent. They ultimately will provide intermediate level technical assistance to Sierra Leone; expand the cooperative marketing movement; provide basic repair and maintenance facilities in rural fishing areas; and work to raise standards of living and productive capacity in rural towns.

The program at Maine is under the direction of Dr. David H. Huntington, assistant to the dean of the College of Agriculture. While on campus, the Peace Corpsmen are residing at the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity house.

MAINE goes to the land of

Masque group in front of Taj Mahal

KIPLING

THE MAINE MASQUE's spring trip to India and Pakistan is mainly a story about people meeting people. That, of course, was the whole point of the trip—a goodwill mission at the invitation of the State Department. From all indications, it was an apparent smash hit.

Professor Herschel L. Bricker took time out from a busy summer schedule recently to talk of his troupe's spring semester road show in the land of Kipling.

He told of a successful mission, in which the dramatic group presented a repertoire of plays to audiences throughout India and Pakistan. "I think we definitely met the aims of the trip. We met literally thousands of people. I really think we had an opportunity to correct many false impressions of America."

He told of the educational benefits to the members of his group. "The majority of our company gained much from the trip. Some gained much more than they realize now."

He told of the experience of having young children traveling as part of the cast. "The small children were the best troupers I had. They never let down once."

He told of an all-day boat trip in Dacca, East Pakistan, in which members of the Masque group had a chance to get acquainted with a large number of Pakistani students.

He told of a wonderful contact with young Indian school children who were entertained by an impromptu program put on by his group.

And of interest to those back home, he told of meeting many folks with Maine connections. "I never thought I'd meet anyone I knew in India and Pakistan," he said, "but soon after word got out that we were going, I began hearing from them, or from people who knew someone there." He spoke again and again of the warm hospitality shown the group by the Maine folks they met along the way.

There were Manning and Alice Hawthorne and their daughters in Bombay, where Mr. Hawthorne, a former member of the University's English department, is serving as cultural affairs officer in the United States Information Service.

There were Dr. and Mrs. George D.

Bearce, Jr. Dr. Bearce '43 is a member of the Bowdoin College faculty in India on a Fulbright fellowship.

There was Jagat Ram Sethi '24, an Indian who was engaged in building a pulp and paper plant in Kashmir. The group obliged his request and sang The Stein Song for him.

There were Thomas M. '36 and Hildreth (Montgomery '32) Hill.

There was Mrs. Ruth (Loring '42) Ten-Brink.

There was Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, president emeritus, in Dacca, East Pakistan, for a stopover on his around-the-world trip.

There were many others who identified themselves to the group as having Maine connections of one sort or another.

Professor Bricker talked of the trip with wistful enthusiasm. "We had our bad times," he said, "but I'd do it all again."

ALUMNI REPORT:

- New Officers
- Financial Status

Alvin S. McNeilly '44 re-elected president for 1962-63; GAA reports it topped fund goal

Alvin S. McNeilly '44 was reelected president of the General Alumni Association at the annual meeting on June 9 in Orono. He will head the association's active program for 1962-63.

From the Alumni Council, Edward C. Sherry '38 was elected first vice president to succeed George A. Potter '20. Mr. Potter will again head the Annual Alumni Fund.

Also reelected were: Mrs. Winona C. Sawyer '43, second vice president; James A. Harmon '40, clerk; Harry T. Treworgy '49, treasurer; Dr. T. Russell Woolley '41, executive director; and Margaret M. Molli-son '50, assistant executive director.

New Council members elected were: Ralph R. Bennett '24, Mrs. Virginia (Tufts '46) Chaplin, Malcolm E. C. Devine '31, Roscoe C. Masterman '32, M. Milton MacBride '35, Albert M. Parker '28, Mrs. Stella (Borkowski '47) Patten, Carl A. Whitman '35, Abel P. Wyman '07 and Myron W. Zimmerman '50. Reelected for three years were: M. Eleanor Jackson '20 and Robert

P. Schoppe '38. Milford F. Cohen '41 was elected to the Athletic Board.

Each of the above named alumni has accepted his office with expressed feelings of responsibility, and with definite willingness to set and to help direct the charted course of alumni affairs on behalf of the University. Also, several members whose terms recently expired have become honorary members of the Alumni Council, their interest continuing to serve the Association as they participate in discussions, but without vote.

The Association has a successful report to submit of the fiscal year ended June 30. Financial operations included cancellation of $5,333 in accounts payable from the previous year, in a budget of $73,735 of income, mainly from contributions. Membership contributions totaled $61,479. Other income was received from advertising, from the interest earnings of the Alumni Activities Fund and from a few service-miscellaneous sources.

Expenses to the Association amounted to $57,993. Nine thousand dollars was also distributed, as voted, to the University for unrestricted purposes and to the Hauck Auditorium.

Major expenses were for mailing, printing and postage costs, for homecoming and commencement, a total "on-campus" reimbursement of nearly $31,000—the Maine Alumnus being the largest single expenditure in that sum. Additionally, salary and other office costs and travel accounted for the remainder of expense.

It is hoped that future operating expenditures, with new arrangements for IBM records-keeping and a central mailing service of the University will stabilize at this year's level and that an approved budget of $94,640 for 1962-63 will be exceeded, especially to benefit scholarship and fellowship aid, the library, unrestricted purposes of the University, a cultural events series and a named faculty chair.

PLAN NOW ON

HOMECOMING!

Homecoming.

Plan on it now.

The dates: October 12 and 13.

What's on tap? The usual things.

A football game. We meet the University of New Hampshire on the gridiron this year. Black Bear Awards.

Social events. The Faculty-Alumni Luncheon. Teas. Social hours. Fraternity and sorority reunions. Homecoming dance.

A chance to renew acquaintances and relive good times of days gone past.

And all that jazz.

Plan on it now.

Homecoming. October 12 and 13. Make your reservations for football and luncheon tickets with the Alumni Office, 44 Library, University of Maine, Orono, Maine.

Watch for your Homecoming Bulletin.

How it started --- Maine Night

In 1900 Dr. O. F. Lewis, then professor of German, had an idea that he hoped would provide a way for alumni and undergraduates to become better acquainted.

He suggested adoption of some kind of gathering to stimulate enthusiasm for the important State Series football game.

His idea caught on. More than 700 attended that first rally in the gym and chapel of the University, and "Maine Night" was born.

It remained "Maine Night" until 1931 when Arthur L. Deering, who later was to become dean of the College of Agriculture, served as chairman of the activities. That year the event was officially termed "Homecoming," as we know it today.

Dr. Lewis' idea has become an outstanding tradition with each succeeding year, bringing throngs of alumni from all corners of the country back to their alma mater to visit the campus while college is in session and to join with the undergraduates in the many and varied activities of the weekend.

BLACK BEAR NOMINATIONS DUE

IT'S STILL not too late to enter nominations for the Black Bear Award.

The 13th annual presentation of this award will highlight the Faculty-Alumni Homecoming Luncheon preceding the New Hampshire football game on October 13.

Deadline for nominations is September 10. Names should be sent to the General Alumni Association, 44 Library, University of Maine, Orono.

The selection of recipients of the award is made by a GAA committee from nominations made by alumni. The award is not restricted to alumni. Faculty and administrative members or friends of the University are eligible. Anyone who has received the Alumni Service Emblem is not eligible for a Black Bear Award.

Among the points considered in making the awards are: 1) devotion to the aims of the University; 2) exemplification of the ideals of the University in personal life; 3) length and quality of service to the University or Alumni Association; and 4) standing among alumni.

Those who have received the award in the past are: 1950—President Emeritus Arthur A. Hauck and Alfred B. Lingley '20; 1951—J. Larcom Ober '13, Clifford Patch '11, and Miss Addie M. Weed; 1952—John C. Sealey, Jr. '36 and Stanley Wallace; 1953—Harold L. Bruce '20, Chester A. Jenkins, and A. D. T. Libby '98; 1954—Albert K. Gardner '10, Archer L. Grover '99, and Col. Joseph A. McCusker '17; 1955—Emilie (Kritter) Josselyn '21 and John L. McCobb '25; 1956—Thomas N. Weeks '16, Theodore S. Curtis '23, and Irving Pierce; 1957—Carl Brugge '18, George Dow '27, and Mrs. William Schruppf '25; 1958—Lewis H. Kriger '16, George A. Potter '20, and Percy F. Crane; 1959—Philip J. ANNUAL "M" CLUB MEETING PLANNED

The annual homecoming meeting will be held Friday evening, October 12, Carleton "Speed" Merritt '24, president, has announced.

The varsity coaches will meet with the group to tell them of the latest on University athletics.

After the graduate "M" Club meeting, the group will join the "open house" activities in the main lounge of the Memorial Union.

DON FAVOR

Maine's track star of 1931-34 made world headlines with the weights

WINNER OF NINE varsity letters in three years. A triple threat standout in football. Called by his coach "the second greatest hammer thrower in the history of the event in this country." Second place winner in the 1933 IC4A hammer throw. Member of a United States track team that toured Japan in 1934. Named to the All-America Track Team. Only American to place in the hammer throw event in the 1936 Olympics.

Here, in 75 words, is a summary of the achievements that make Donald Emerson Favor '34 one of the University's all-time athletic greats.

Thumb through the sports pages of any of Maine's daily newspapers from 1931 through 1934 and you'll soon see why his coach, the late Chester A. Jenkins, called him "a coach's dream of a perfect athlete."

History will prove Don Favor one of Maine's most versatile athletes. He was a brilliant halfback on the football team. He was a standout with the weights and discus. He was better than average on the high hurdles. He could pole vault with the best.

All these feats are made the more spectacular by one other important factor. Don Favor weighed less than 170 pounds.

His weight was such a problem, in fact, that during his schoolboy days his doctor ordered him to quit training, telling him he would never again be able to participate in athletics. Determined that he would participate, Don went on to become a star at Deering High School in Portland.

He hadn't been on the Maine campus a week before he became involved in an athletic career that was to bring him national and international recognition.

During his freshman year he won numerals in football and basketball. For the next three years he brought athletic renown to himself and his alma mater.

Although it didn't bring him the fame that his track exploits did, his football record bordered on the fantastic. During his three seasons on the varsity squad, he was chosen for the all-Maine football eleven, received honorable mention for all-Eastern during his junior year and acted as co-captain his senior year.

He picked up the nickname "Blond Viking." He was considered a triple threat man on the gridiron. He could pass, punt and run with dexterity.

It was in his junior year that he gained national prominence. Against Bates he created a new indoor field mark of 50 feet

MAINE'S SPORTS GREATS (First in a Series)

10½ inches with the weights and a few weeks later won the University Club meet in Boston with a new record of 51 feet ¾ inch for the Harvard Cage.

Branching out during his senior year, he became Maine's outstanding pole vaulter. He leaped over the bar 11 feet 3 inches in competition, and had cleared 12 feet during practice sessions.

So widely known were his track exploits that he was chosen by Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union, as a member of the 1934 All-America Track Team, for the 16-pound hammer event.

Graduation did not end his athletic career. He won a berth on the American track team that toured Japan in the fall of 1934, coming home with several trophies.

In 1936 he was among those to represent the United States at the Olympic Games. He was the only American to place in the hammer throw event there.

While at Maine, he did not confine all his activities to athletics. Always a good student he majored in forestry and held offices in the Forestry Club. He was a member of the Sophomore Owls and Senior Skulls. He was Junior and Senior Marshal. He was treasurer of Phi Sigma, national honorary biological fraternity, and vice president of Xi Sigma Pi, national forestry fraternity. He was vice president of his class during its junior and senior years. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

After graduation, he coached and taught at Foxcroft Academy, Dover-Foxcroft, and Lewiston High School. He served as principal of Guilford High School and Bowdoinham High School. Later he founded the Favor Studio of photography in Brunswick. Not too long ago, he left Maine for Berkeley, Calif., where he now resides.

PSALMS FOR THE COMMON READER

Psalms for the Common Reader

Mary Ellen Chase '09. W. W. Norton & Co., Inc., New York, 1962. $3.95.

Delightful may not be the word to describe the new book by Mary Ellen Chase '09, The Psalms for the Common Reader, but to this reviewer the adjective seems an appropriate one. The work is surely of interest to scholars, but it is not pedantic.

Professor Chase urges common readers, who would like to know more about the Psalms than can immediately be gleaned from the Old Testament, to turn to her supplement at the back of the book first and read the historical account there of the Hebrew people. Doing that, one is aided pleasurably to appreciate the brief parts one and two: What are the Psalms? and How Should the Psalms be Read?

The origin and use of the Psalms, the various types, their thoughts, ideas and literary devices are explained.

Scholar of the Bible, student and master of literature, the author shows her delight in the subject and carefully leads others to gratification as she accomplishes her aim to make the reading of Psalms more interesting and valuable. Excellent analysis is in the work. Love of poetry and especially admiration of the out-loud sounds of language from the King James version can be detected on every page. Here is joy for the reader. Theological students will benefit greatly from acquaintance with this book, but so will all friends of the Bible and Miss Chase.

Law library given books

A gift of more than 100 volumes in the "lawyer's encyclopedia" has been presented to the University's School of Law by United State Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark.

The volumes, comprising the "Corpus Juris Secundum," are a modernized version of the body of the law.

Taking part in the shelving ceremonies at the School of Law in Portland were William B. Mahoney, Portland attorney and president of the Maine Bar Association, and John M. Blake, special assistant to the president of the University of Maine. Mr. Blake is acting as dean of the School of Law.

When Justice Clark was in Rockland last summer for a meeting of the Bar Association he heard about the new University of Maine School of Law in Portland. He later wrote asking what he could do to help the School and listing the law books he was willing to donate.

Senior Alumni Reunion Report

The presentation of a mahogany gavel featured the business session of the Senior Alumni Association at its 27th meeting in the Bangor Room of the Memorial Union on Alumni Day. Following the Breakfast in the Bear's Den, at which 55 members and guests were present, the group adjourned to the Bangor Room for the photograph and meeting.

The business meeting was called to order by President Richard F. Talbot '07 at 9:18 a.m. with approximately 45 present. In calling the meeting to order President Talbot used a gavel made by Harold S. Boardman '95. The gavel, a beautiful piece of workmanship, is of Honduras mahogany and has a silver band inscribed: "Presented to the University of Maine Senior Alumni Association by Harold S. Boardman, Maine '95."

The meeting was addressed by Dr. Thomas H. Curry, Associate Dean of the College of Technology, who spoke on the accreditation of the several curricula in the College; Mr. Donald V. Taverner, Director of Development, who spoke on developments within the University; and Dr. T. Russell Woolley, Executive Director of the General Alumni Association, who gave a report on alumni activities.

The following officers were elected for 1962-63: President, Richard F. Talbot '07; 1st Vice President, Walter E. Farnham, '07, 2nd Vice President, Ernest Lamb '10; Secretary-Treasurer, James A. Gannett '08; Auditor, Charles F. Smith '10.

At the Alumni Banquet President Talbot announced the award of four Senior Alumni Association Scholarships of $150 each for the year 1962-63.

1902 Reunion Report

Our celebration of the 60th Anniversary for the Class of 1902 was a definite success.

Arthur Silver of Montclair, N. J., with Mrs. Silver was on hand for opening of Registration Friday morning. Harold Carr of Keene, N. H., was second to register. On registering, class members and wives were tagged with a special Sixtieth Reunion lapel card in class colors of white with red lettering. Later on each registrant was pinned with the familiar red with white '02 armband. Thus decorated, 1902 people were prominently identified.

In Chadbourn Hall a lounge set with Class and University historic items provided a cozy and comfortable 1902 Headquarters.

The featured event and highlight of Sixtieth Reunion was a 1902 Dinner, Friday evening, in Ham Room, Memorial Union. An attractively decorated table, an excellent meal, served by the University Chef, informality, and congeniality added up to a very enjoyable gathering.

At the party were: class members—Harold Carr, Eugene Gilbert, Horace Hamlin, Arthur Silver, with Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Silver; guests—former University President, Harold S. Boardman '95, James Gannett '08, Mrs. Gannett, Dr. Ava Chadbourne '15 (sister of 1902's recently deceased Henry Chadbourne). Unfortunately Mrs. Boardman was afflicted with a cold and remained away.

One much hoped for Dinner guest, Professor Charles P. Weston '96 of Orono, was too frail to attend. He was a favorite professor during 1902 Campus days. After the Dinner, the flowers from the table were taken to Prof. Weston, accompanied by a note signed by all present, expressing "respect, affection, and best wishes."

During the gathering the diners had the pleasure of several brief visits. First, Margaret Mollison '50, Assistant Alumni Director, came in for greetings and to lend aid. Next, President and Mrs. Elliott dropped in. While chatting cordially with each one present, both were decorated with the famous 1902 armband. And last, Dr. Russell Woolley '41 sat down for a very agreeable chat.

Over the coffee cups were made brief reports of contacts with and messages from several 1902 members who had expected or hoped to attend Sixtieth, but who, as Commencement time approached, yielded to health limitations.

At Alumni Banquet on Saturday evening, Class of 1902 presented to the University of Maine a gift of $275.00.

Sixtieth Reunion of 1902 was promoted by the class member group of Walter Eldridge of Jamaica Plains, Mass., Arthur Silver of Montclair, N. J., and Mrs. Lida Knowles Smith of Bath, Maine.

1907 Reunion Report

Seventeen classmates were present and a total of 28 sat down to the class dinner on Friday nite at North Estabrooke Hall. Those there with wives were L. Barrows, J. Burleigh, T. Bye, B. Connell, E. Lambe, K. MacDonald, R. Mitchell, T. Perry and R. Talbot. Single ones, W. Farnham, H. Green, R. Hamlin, P. Swift, Edith (Tate) Brawn, B. Williams, and A. P. Wyman.

Who came the longest distance? We guess it was a toss up between Ben Connell and Robie Mitchell, both of New York State.

The dinner was fine. The majority took lobster newburg, while a few wrestled with the roast beef.

After the dinner vice president Dick Talbot called the class to order. It was voted to keep the same officers. Dick Talbot to head the class and Karl MacDonald, secretary and treasurer. The treasurer reported cash on hand of $131.91. Since that report, $5.00 has been received from Gordon Wildes. Gordon was in Fairfax, Va., and hoped to attend the Reunion but had to leave for California before it took place. His new address is 306 So. El Maleno Ave., Pasadena, Calif.

After the business was thru, Dick asked if anyone had anything to say or questions to ask. Robie Mitchell said he would like to read a letter from the "Statues for Freedom Committee" which he did.

We missed our late president, Bill Alexander, along with Carl Garland, our oldest classmate, who usually came with Bill.

Several classmates who would have liked to come could not be there. Horton Kierstead is in the Volmars Nursing Home, No. Vassalboro, Maine. He says, "Sorry I can't attend the 55th. I am too much occupied learning to use a store leg and one crutch. I am making progress."

Elmer Wilson has been in the Linnview Hospital, 25 Linnwood Road, Lynn, Mass., since April. If anyone knows the name and address of any of his relatives, please send it to Mr. John W. Finnigan, 1 State Street, Boston 9, Mass., who is his Temporary Conservator.

Several wrote on the return postal to Dick Talbot, saying they would like to be present but sickness or other troubles would not allow them to attend.

1907 always enjoys reunions and we were pleased to have President Lloyd H. Elliott and Russ Woolley, alumni director, come by and greet us at the 55th Reunion Class Dinner.

by KARL MACDONALD, Sec'y.

1912 Reunion Report

Forty-six members registered for the 50th Reunion of the Class of 1912 on June 8 and 9, 1962. This is 43.4 per cent of the present membership. One half of those registered were residents of Maine. The remainder came from 12 other states and the District of Columbia. Some traveled a considerable distance to get to the reunion. Among these, Oscar Mountfort arrived from

CLASS OF 1907-55TH REUNION

CLASS OF 1912-50TH REUNION

Florida and Celia (Coffin) Thompson from California.

The 1912 Room in the Memorial Union Building was the official Headquarters. The room was decorated by Lloyd Houghton's Committee with banners, pictures of baseball, football, and track teams, as well as posters and other mementoes depicting the undergraduate days. Copies of old "Prisms," 1908-1913, were of especial interest.

The Reunion Festivities began in the Main Lounge of the Memorial Union Building about an hour previous to the Friday night Class Banquet. At this first official get-together Alden Chase, William Gray, Charles Newell, and Ralph Talbot led the group in the singing of old songs.

At 6:30 the "gang" retired to the Hilton Room for the 1912 Class Banquet. Seventy-two persons including 42 class members sat down to the splendid food prepared and served by the University Staff. The room was prettily arranged by June Kelley and her committee on decorations. June and Helen (Worster) Cleaves had livened up the tables with beautiful bouquets of peonies. Warren McDonald furnished hand-lettered place cards bearing in most cases not only the name but also the 1912 Prism pictures of the class members present. Warren Savary decorated one wall with a large 1912 plaque. President Arthur Deering greeted the group informally, recalling Class Memories and giving short anecdotes about the different members. One of the highlights of the evening was the awarding to Frank and Mrs. Lancaster a certificate for meritorious service to the Class. Following the class supper most of the group returned to the Main Lounge where the Alumni Reception was already in progress.

Saturday morning the class group had breakfast together in Stodder Hall. Immediately following the meal, President Deering called a short class meeting. The reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted. In the election of officers, Arthur Deering was chosen president; June Kelley, vice president; William Schrupf, secretary; and Frank Lancaster, treasurer. Our invited guests Ernest Lamb '10 and Mrs. Lamb were made honorary members of the 1912 Class. Ernest in his capacity of vice president of the Senior Alumni outlined very interestingly the purposes and works of the Senior Alumni Association.

At the General Alumni Luncheon at noon in the Memorial Gymnasium, Arthur Deering gave the 50th Class Reunion address. He vividly contrasted the old ways with the new and recalled achievements of members of the 1912 Class in their different phases of endeavor. Following the Luncheon, the class members were assembled for the Class picture. All the registered members except Austin Jones, Albert Nickels, Charles Rowe, and Rollins Seabury, are in the picture.

In the evening, following the General Alumni Banquet, the announcement was made that 1912 had won the attendance cup for the largest percentage returned of the 20th Century classes. At this time, representing the 1912 Class, William Schrupf presented President Elliott, for the University of Maine Foundation, the sum of $3,100, the result of the drive for a 50th Reunion Gift to the University. In addition $50 was presented to the General Alumni Activities Fund.

Following all this, many returned to the 1912 Room where they chatted until it was time to retire. And thus ended what was truly an eventful 50th Reunion of the Class of 1912.

by WILLIAM SCHRUPF, Sec'y.

1917 Reunion Report

Now that our 45th Reunion has come and gone, I am trying to find words to express what it meant to those of us who enjoyed three days together, so that at least some of that pleasure will reach those who were not with us.

First, we certainly beat the attendance record for the 45th Reunion, as we had 51 members registered. It will take a long time to better that record, I feel sure.

We contributed $69.00 to the Alumni Activities Fund, and added $1,237.00 to the 1917 Scholarship Fund, with more to come in.

We started our weekend, as planned, with dinner at the Tar-ratine Club in Bangor. Sixty sat down to a very nice meal, following a delightful social hour in the lounge, as we welcomed arriving classmates and renewed acquaintance with their wives and husbands. I must admit that I, for one, didn't always get the right name, the first time I tried; of course most of the old "regulars" were there, but it was wonderful to greet those who came back for the first time. There were at least five from our class who had never been back for a reunion: Harvey Waugh, Frank Savage, Phil Clement, Frank Berridge, and Dr. Fuller Sherman.

Breakfast on Saturday morning saw 44 gathered around the tables in the Ford Room at the Memorial Union Building.

Following breakfast, we all gathered for our class meeting with nearly 60 there. The same officers were elected for another five years; Joe McCusker, president; Ed Dempsey, vice president; Frank O. Stevens, secretary; (and how good it was to have him back with us again) Jack Freese, Treasurer; and Helen West, class column editor.

As usual we all enjoyed the Alumni Luncheon and Banquet, both held in the Memorial Gymnasium, and truly it is always a thrill to watch the reunion classes grouped at their special tables, and join in the old, familiar songs. I hope we will have as wonderful a group back to receive our 50 year diplomas as the 1912 class did, this year. We must start right now, if we can hope to best their record in 1967.

The Sunday program was a fitting climax for us all. William and I were so delighted to have over 20 come to Orrington to see our wild flower garden, and many of them coming in time to breakfast with us. I hope we will still be there to ask you all to breakfast in 1967.

The wonderful lobster dinner at Shep Hurd's beautiful home in Searsport, was a perfect way to close our weekend. There were 61 there. The weather was perfect. The food was fit for kings. And what can beat Maine lobster!

Don't you all wish you had come? I wish you would all feel as Frank Savage does. He said that now he certainly wanted to live another five years and come for our 50th Reunion. I am sure he is sorry that he didn't come back before. So we all send greetings from our 45th, and urge you to join us for another wonderful time in 1967

1922 Reunion Report

The Class of 1922 had 59 people present including wives at the Bangor House on the night of June 8th at 6 p.m. By the time the lobster and beef was served at 7:10 p.m., things were really humming with many a "rehash" of incidents which happened so long ago. One of the strange characteristics of our dinner was the appearance of so many who had not planned to come and vice versa. However it was a happy time for all. The Class President (your reporter) acted as M.C.; the response was better than at some of our former business banquets. At the head table were the following:

Leslie W. Hutchins (and wife), President; John H. Needham (and wife), Vice President; Estelle Nason, Secretary; Winslow K. Herrick (and wife), Treasurer. A moment of silence was asked for those who used to be with us. Then after dinner your M.C. read the list of those who had responded to our requests for help and the various letters were read to indicate the interest of those absent and far away.

One of the real surprises to yours truly was the presentation of a $50 gift certificate to your reporter for his efforts to get the class moving on a more accelerated basis than formerly. This presentation was made by Lawrence Davee for a group of anonymous givers. This gift was very much appreciated. There was no attempt to discuss class subjects or problems which were left to the Saturday morning business meeting. Some of those present at the banquet but not at business meeting on Saturday were as follows:

Lawrence P. Barton, Joseph S. Buber, Vinton O. Harkness, F. Kenneth Chapman, Richard P. Hegarty, John T. Quinn, and Fred F. and Katherine S. Marsden. There were others present, but we did not ask each one to record their names hoping that a memory could do it all. Forgive us if you were left out and thanks so much to all of those who contributed to the class fund, and to those who attended whatever part of our activities possible.

The business meeting at 9:45 a.m. in the Sutton Lounge of the Memorial Union Building found fifteen voting classmates present. (Perhaps we had too long a banquet the night before!) The first order of business was the election of officers. Those elected for 1962-67 are as follows:

Lawrence W. Davee, President; John H. Needham, Vice President; Catherine Sargent Marsden, Secretary and Personals Editor; Frederick F. Marsden, Treasurer. It was voted to donate $250 to the Alumni Activities Fund and no appropriation was made as a class gift. This situation should now be corrected as the following were elected to serve as Finance Committee to raise funds for class gifts and for whatever needs which might appear from time to time. Foster B. Blake, Chairman, Sumner P. Hopkins, Henry T. Cary. This seems like a sure fire group who can raise funds on a class dues and gift basis so that we can do our part as a class.

CLASS OF 1922-40TH REUNION

CLASS OF 1927-35TH REUNION

The new class officers took over and Lawrence Davee has assumed his office with a good start in our opinion. Your reporter will soon be in touch with Catherine S. Marsden to turn over any letters, etc., for a start of the next reporting year.

Hugh (Moose) Williams came the longest distance from Hagerstown, Maryland, with Ivan Craig a close second.

As your outgoing class president, may we offer our thanks and sincere appreciation for all the many letters, phone calls, and overall help which has made the job so much easier and pleasant. To our right arm, John H. Needham, our sincerest thanks and to the General Alumni Office (the best ever) our very best in thanks and appreciation.

This job has been a great experience for me—I have messages from so many whom I knew so long ago—it was nice to say Hello to them all on June 8-9-10. Here is how I described the passage of 40 years at our Banquet (Bobby Burns in "Tam'O Shanter")

But pleasures are like poppies spread,
You seize the flower, its bloom is shed,
Or like the snow falls in the river, a moment white, then melts forever, or like the Borealis race, that flit ere you can point the place or like the rainbows lovely form, vanishing amid the storm.

1927 Reunion Report

To all of you who attended reunion, it was wonderful to see you again. To those of you who were unable to come, we missed you. And—you missed a "doozy." We had the dinner at the country club as scheduled and a social hour preceding. Both were successful. About fifty-two attended, including wives, husbands and offspring. I give special mention to the Merrill Dooeys as this was the first reunion they have attended. It was so nice to meet her and to see him again I am sure they will not wait another thirty-five years. It was fun all the way. A poem by Amy Adams Green is appearing nearby in this issue.

We did transact some business at the Saturday class meeting. Your class officers are:

President, Earle Webster; Vice Pres., George Dow; 2nd Vice

Pres., John Mahony; Secretary, Peggy (Preble) Webster; Treasurer, Dick Dolloff; Personals Sec., Marshall Washburn. The Executive

THIRTY-FIFTH REUNION

That sunny day in June so long ago
On Coburn's Oval, smooth and cool and green,
That day which now our class commemorates,
Preluding futures still all unforeseen—

We prophesied then, boldly, each for each,
And gifts we gave to those we thought we knew;
With outstretched hands we offered youth to serve
Those things we thought were firm and good and true.

Perhaps like snatchers of a golden dream,
Some memory returns as now we meet;
Perhaps our hearts are struck with chill dismay
To pass like strangers on a busy street.

But we have cords that ever bind us close—
We who no longer look or feel the same—
Incredible that for a moment we could think
The only thing familiar was the name!

Four years together is not all we share!
Maine's heritage against all fevered fears,
The self-reliance of the pioneer,
The rock foundation that outwears the years.

For we have weathered much since(eager, young, Resolved to take life at its very flood)
We saw the static world disintegrate
And bore our part in sweat and tears and blood.

For each, the morning struggle passes by,
Demanding patience, love, and strength untold;
Now, in the long, warm summer afternoon
The meanings of our stewardship unfold.

So, gladly now, we yield our places here
To generations knocking on the gates:
We know their heritage is one with ours,
And for their hands our longed-for harvest waits.

add $710 to the Class Scholarship Fund bringing our total to $2,420. Any additional gifts or money coming in from matching funds will be added directly to the Class Scholarship Fund.

Fran (Sawyer) Worester did come. I trust you noticed that we did not win any attendance cups. However, it was a successful reunion and a great deal of the credit is due our president "Danny." Thanks and goodbye.

1932 Reunion Report

Our reunion got off to a good start Friday night at the dinner party at the Oronoka. It was a real gala affair thanks to all the advance preparations and hard work of Prexy Paul Butler and his committee of Al and Mary (Bean) Gerry, Win Libby, Clayton Lothrop, and Mollie (Rubin) Stern. Reunion Committee, we salute you! How were you ever able to string that "Welcome Home" banner across Main Street as well as provide for such beautiful weather and arrange to have the party take place on "Shorty" McLean's birthday? You are terrific! There were present at the party 98 persons (57 class members). The food was delicious, and so was the organ music provided by Dick Snare, class of '33. Since Paul managed to get himself on crutches (and don't think I got a good explanation of what happened) Al Gerry presided at the dinner. According to true democratic process, everyone present was invited to stand up and say anything he wished to. And some very weighty remarks were contributed from the floor. Hildreth ("Ike" Montgomery) Hill from Calcutta, India, came the greatest distance. Marvia (Pooler) Barry won the floral crown for her youthful beauty. Dot (Baker) and spouse Dr. Jay Moody had the distinction of having driven from their home in Newport, R. I., in their 1907 Morse car. "A good time was had by all" from all that my tired old eyes could see that night. I haven't had so much fun since I tried out my electric toothbrush last Christmas morn.

Saturday morning we had an early class breakfast which yours truly missed. At our class meeting on Saturday, the following officers were elected: president, Win Robbins; vice president, Dr. Jim Bates; treasurer, Bob Vickery; secretary, Angela Miniutti. Our class gift to the University is a revolving scholarship loan fund, to be added to at every five year reunion.

There was no class picnic on Sunday, because so few persons would have been able to attend.

The autobiographical sketches that were sent to the reunion committee (your response for this was wonderful) were very attractively bound in two "Blue Books" and were circulated at the party. I hope that it will be possible to use summaries of all these items in future class letters. For those who have not yet been able to see them, they will make very interesting reading; for those who have already read them, this will provide a very good refresher course. Hope you all have a wonderful summer!

by ANGELA MINIUTTI, Sec'y.

1937 Reunion Report

For those members who could not get back for our 25th, as well as for those who were present, the following account may be of interest.

CLASS OF 1937-25TH REUNION

Eighty-three class members and guests enjoyed Friday evening by visiting and eating together at the Penobscot Valley Country Club to start the big reunion weekend. Culmination of the diligent action of the nominating committee also occurred at this time—in the person of Barb (Lancaster) Raymond, the committee member present. Barb was finally able to reduce the number of volunteers for class officers to the following who were duly elected at the class meeting Saturday morning by 37 bright and shining 37ers: president, Win Adams; vice president, Bob Laverty; treasurer, Bob Ohler; secretary, Audrey (Bishop) Thibodeau and Class Reporters, for one year each in addition to Audrey, Barb (Bertels) Byrnes, Barb (Lancaster) Raymond, Alan Duff, and Les Smith.

Other business at the class meeting included the donation of $25.00 to the Alumni Activities Fund of the GAA; the decision to present the Class Gift Fund to the University of Maine Foundation—the annual proceeds of which would be used for student scholarship or loan purposes; and the decision to add to the Class Gift Fund at the rate of $5.00 per member per year.

At the Alumni Banquet on Saturday, $2,500.00 was presented to University of Maine President Lloyd H. Elliott by retiring Class Prexy Red Bates. This amount included the matured value of the class insurance policy taken out at graduation time on class member Phyl (Dimitre) Peterson, interest on contributions to the Class Gift Fund, and $1,300 from 75 class members—nearly $20.00 each from about 20 per cent of the class members.

John Bennett, our distinguished Standard Oil executive, came up to reunion from his current location in Argentina; Les and Betty Smith came east from Purdue University; and many others from all parts of the northeast were present.

In the meantime, let's all sweeten up that Gift Fund with our five per year and brighten up the class news column with items of interest from time to time. Both types of contributions properly identified may be sent to the Alumni Office or to Treasurer Bob and Secretary Audrey, respectively.

1942 Reunion Report

It was a great reunion... 75 class members registered officially with the Alumni Association and the Class of 1942 walked off with the Cup awarded for the largest number in attendance. It was the biggest 20th ever from all reports available. Aside from the quantity present, everyone had a wonderful time. The spirit of the group was terrific and talk of the 25th Reunion was on everyone's lips with the hope that hundreds more of the class will be able to make it five years hence!!!

Spouses included, the dinner Friday evening at the Penobscot Valley Country Club was attended by 118. With Howie Cousins as M.C. a number of interesting awards were made—to Cherrie (Thorne) Kaifer for coming the longest distance (Baltimore), to Bill Schaible for having the youngest child (8 months), to Seth Thornton for having the shiniest dome, to Cortna (Kingsley) Billings for having changed the least among the women, to Nat Crowley for having changed the least among the men, to Nat Crowley for having the oldest child (Nat Jr., 20, a Jr. at Maine). They had an award ready for anyone having a grandchild, but there were no takers! Steve Gould's Band provided music for dancing after dinner; although there was considerable dancing, there was perhaps more visiting and gabbing as people caught up on 20 years of activity. At one point, Steve Kierstead and several other fellows took over the band and proved they're just as "hot" as they ever were. Many of the crowd went on to the Commencement Ball on campus in the late evening, where Ray McKinley was playing with that familiar Glenn Miller style!

His Excellency, John Reed, Governor of the State of Maine, honored the class with his presence at the Saturday luncheon. A number of the youngsters who had accompanied Mother and Dad to the campus were thrilled to find themselves sitting with the Governor and hastened to secure his signature to show to the gang back home!

Important matters of business coming before the Class meeting on Saturday A.M. included the report of Hirsch Garfinkle that $1,138.00 had been contributed by about 20% of the class for the "Building Block Fund." It was voted to give a gift of $150.00 to the Alumni Activities Fund (interest from which is used to help support Homecoming and Reunion activities for alumni), to hold some funds in savings account to cover costs of mailing and promotion work in connection with the 25th Reunion, and to place the balance in the U. of Maine Foundation to be the beginning of a class gift for the 25th. The amount of $10,000 was voted as a goal for our 25th Reunion Gift. (You will be hearing more about this in a Class Newsletter in the not too distant future.) Frannie Andrews resigned as Class Treasurer because of the pressure of his business. Hirsch Garfinkle was elected to the office. Bette Taverner resigned as Secretary because she felt someone else ought to have the pleasure of writing the column for a change. Mary Louise (White) Griffie was elected to that office. Bill Irvine and Nat Crowley were re-elected President and V. President, respectively. The Executive Committee consists of Barb Cuetara, Ralph Dale, Wallie Francis, Bette Taverner, and Woody Woodward.

Many, many thanks go to Prexy Bill Irvine for doing such a terrific job in leading us all to an outstandingly successful reunion. Special thanks also to Bill's wife, Martha (Allen '44) for letting him do so much work towards reunion! More thanks to the various chairmen for reunion—Woody Woodward, Larry and Mary (Cowin) Leavitt, Don and Mary Louise (White) Griffie, and Hirsch Garfinkle. Yet more thanks to all who contributed in any way to the occasion. Guess that means thanks to everyone who came!!

1947 Reunion Report

Your 1947 15th Class Reunion was held at the Bangor House on Friday, June 8, for dinner and class meeting. Why more of you didn't take an interest was more than the group who gathered there could understand, as everyone really enjoyed themselves. Jeanne (Heartz) Babcock came from Phoenix, Ariz., just eager to see everyone. Georgia (Parsons) Eustis says that she would never miss a reunion and from the records of the past, she hasn't. Mary (Sawyer) Jordan who lives in Clifton, Me., was elected to write the Alumnus column for the next five years. Joan (Ambrose) Shaw was elected treasurer and reported that only forty dollars for dues had been sent to her at reunion time. She hopes that a lot more will be mailed to her by fall. She is giving all reunion notes to Mary for the first column in the fall. Other officers elected were Lowell Savage, president; Peter Bradshaw, vice president; and Jeanne (Heartz) Babcock, secretary. Elected to the Executive Committee were Lowell Savage, Eleanor Webb, Morris Pilot, Robert Patten, Margaret (Spaulding) Brooks, Barbara (Mills) Browne and Esther (Ring) Savage.

Present at the reunion in addition to those listed in the last Alumnus or mentioned above were: Eleanor Webb, Barb (Mills) Browne, and Henry and Mary (Sawyer) Jordan.

I wish you all would make it a must on your list to return sometime soon to the University. It has grown so large since we were there 15 years ago and truly it still is the most beautiful campus and so very friendly. You owe it to you and your family to come back.

CLASS OF 1952-10TH REUNION

1952 Reunion Report

It was a real pleasure to see so many '52ers gathered to break bread and reminisce at the English Room at the Bangor House for our 10th Reunion Banquet. There were over forty in evidence with travelers from Texas, Mid-South, Penna., Mass., and Maine of course.

Our president, Alan Pease, extended greetings, entertained with a story or two, and in general contributed to the spirit of the gathering. Dinner was followed by dancing—both features were a treat for all, particularly in the company of old friends.

A goodly number attended the class breakfast at the Commons at 8:00 a.m. and by class meeting time at 9:00 a.m. in the Walker Room of the Memorial Union Building, our class group had enlarged considerably and included several more who hadn't been able to be with us Friday p.m. With exchanges of greetings and all it was, with difficulty, that Alan Pease whipped our group into meeting order. There were 43 at the meeting.

Class officers will remain the same until the next reunion meeting with the exception of the position of secretary. Jean (Frye) Begley sought relief in this very important task that she has so graciously covered for five years. Ida (Morsehead) Wiley will carry for us in this capacity. The other officers are, Alan Pease, pres.; Nancy (Knowles) Moore, vice pres.; Dave Fox, treas., and on the executive committee are: Owen Smith, William Ruby, Roger Sullivan, Bryce McEwen, Richard Dow, Dorothy McCann, Marilyn (Harmon) Saydah, Mary McIntyre White, Richard Webber, and Andy Mezoian.

It was decided to divide our class into areas with area chairmen to help us in future contacts and Bill Ruby offered to handle this job for us.

The class executive committee has been given the task of deciding on the best way of investing our annual dues in the name of our class toward our 25th reunion, when it is traditional for classes to make a substantial gift to the University. In addition this group is to decide on a short term goal. We would welcome suggestions for this project.

It is our hope that a class address list will be available for any who may desire to have one.

The class plans to pen one letter each year in the vicinity of early January to pass on special class news of projects, etc. to you.

Many attended the Sunday outing at Forest Lake in Friendship where lobster was the order of the day—a real family frolic.

To all of us who were present, the gatherings were gratifying—so good to see so many friends. To those who weren't able to be there, you were sincerely missed and we hope that on our next reunion you'll be there, too.

Please keep our class projects in mind; your dues make these possible, and remember too, that we need your active interest to keep 1952 on the move.

1957 Reunion Report

What a wonderful reunion! I just wish everyone who missed it could have been there.

Friday evening started with our social hour and banquet which was attended by 55 including wives and husbands of class members. Two door prizes were given, one to Dottie (Richards) Marshall who won a transistor radio and the other to Betty (Moloney) Wilson who won an ice crusher. The novelty prizes went to Bill Scott—a skipping rope (for the member gaining the most weight) oh, Big Bad Bill! Lin Haskins—a thermos (for traveling the greatest distance—Germany, to be exact. As Lin said, "Thanks to Uncle Sam") and Norman Cosgrove, diapers (for the one with the most children—four). Norm said for his grandchildren as his oldest just graduated from high school! As you can see, it was lots of fun!

Saturday morning at nine (Oh—was that early!) was the class meeting. Well worth getting up for. The class officers and exec. council were voted back into office for the next five years (listed below). Max Burry, class treasurer, read a sorrowful treasurer's report. Our bank balance was $520.37 with an additional $162.06 in donations to our scholarship fund (which John Edgar now heads). The main discussion at the meeting was the customary gift to the University and the continuance and enlargement of the scholarship. As the donations to the scholarship were much lower than hoped for, money was taken from the class balance to increase the addition to the class scholarship to $300.

Here are your class officers: president, Eben DeGrasse; vice president, Peter Pierson; secretary, Jane (Caton) Beaulieu; treasurer, Max Burry; executive committee, Wesley English, Larry Ronco, William Scott, William Law, Georgia Drivas.

The class wishes to express our thanks for the outstanding work done by Scott and Dottie (Richards) Marshall and their committee in planning the 5th Reunion. And to our fine prexy, Ed DeGrasse, who come all the way from Atlanta, Georgia, to head the round-up.

Cyn (Hawkes) Meehan led a very good discussion on the possibility of a yearly contribution to the fund instead of a lump sum at Reunion time when it might be harder to contribute what the individual feels is worthy. A plan was adopted unanimously where each member can contribute yearly what he feels he can. An example was given that if each member gives one dollar each year the fund will be increased by about $3,000 in five years. You'll be hearing more about this in coming issues. All contributions should be mailed to Max Burry, 980 State Street, New Haven, Conn.

1960 Reunion Report

Seventeen people returned for our First Class Reunion. At the class meeting on Saturday morning, it was voted that the present class officers and executive committee remain in office until the fifth reunion. Also, the class funds would remain in the present building and loan association fund and draw interest until the next class reunion.

Here are your class officers: president, Charles J. Ochmanski; vice president, Richard H. Sturgeon; secretary, Betty (Colley) Shibles; treasurer, Ira W. Stockwell, Jr.; personals editor, Betty Shibles; executive committee, John W. McCabe, Norman W. Stevenson, Phyllis (Warren) Mirth, and Barbara (York) Sturgeon.

The Class of 1960 Banquet was held at South Estabrooke. Don Taverner '43, Director of Development, told us of the future growth plans of the University. They listened to the wax record from the 1961 Prism, which told the highlights of our senior year at Orono. 'Twas good fun.

Following are a few of those who were able to return to the reunion. Bob Sterritt whose address is Safety Officer, Phila. Air Def. Site, Pedricktown, N. J., will be married to Valerie Beck '62 on September 1. Bill Munsey will be attending B.U. in September. He is engaged to Helen Wallace '61. Bud Ochmanski, class president, has returned to Maine and his address is: Cove Rd., R.D. 2, Auburn. Dick and Barbie (York) Sturgeon will be moving from Augusta to Portland in September. Thanks should be given to Barbie and Dick who attempted in one way or another to contact many of you about the reunion. I was unable to return for the reunion as Mark and I were recently stationed here in Baltimore at Fort Holabird. It seems that many of us are spending some time with the armed services and perhaps by the next Reunion more of us will be able to return to the University.

The following news was sent to me by Pvt. Jerry Mulcahy who by now is on his way to Hawaii. Carl Conklin is now head 4-H Club Agent in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., with headquarters at the Kingston 4-H Office. Frank Wiles is head 4-H Club Agent of Tioga County, N. Y., with headquarters at the Owego 4-H office. Frank and his wife now have two boys, Charles and Patrick. Geraldine and Roger Cyr are living in Long Island, N. Y., where Roger is working with the Plant Quarantine Service in N.Y.C. Roger and Gerry have a son, Brian. Bill and Judy Twyman are in Pittsford, Vt., where Bill is working at the Fed. Fish Hatchery in a manager trainee program.

New additions to families from the class of 1960 are a daughter, Barbara Jean, to Bonnie and Bobby Brown; a son, Mark, to John and Polly (Jackson) Thibodeau; a son to Bob and Cyn (Ayer) Hickey, and a daughter to Phil and Cathy (Ayer) Curtis.
